Benefits of a Virtual Art Festival

PLATFORMS

New platforms have emerged to create dynamic virtual events that can engage attendees with marketplace, videos, live streaming, interactive content, and beyond!

MORE TIME

Virtual events allow you more time to sell your artwork! Virtual events are not confined to the time of the physical event and can last days, weeks, and months longer than the in-person event.

TRUSTED ORGANIZATIONS

The festivals you know and love are adapting to the changing times by offering new forms of revenue and providing access to customers you might not have had otherwise.

HERE TO STAY

ArtFest believes that virtual events are here to stay and should be embraced as a new aspect of events, even post-pandemic.
Hybrid events (virtual & in-person)

BENEFITS OF eventeny FOR ARTISTS

WHAT MAKES IT WORTHWHILE FOR YOU

- Virtual "Store" for each artist.
- Unlimited photo, video, and artwork upload per artist.
- Bulk artwork upload avoiding that tedious one-at-a-time process.
- Live Chat with virtual attendees or they make an appointment to chat with you (auto-powered by Zoom).
- Artist Statement; contact info; links to your YouTube, Facebook, and more
- Integrated eCommerce - buy from many artists in one shopping cart.
- Orders/shipping, money, email database and sales tax info all sent automatically to each artist. Money is processed through Stripe.
- Virtual Booth rollover - When you exhibit at another virtual event on the Eventeny platform, your virtual booth is linked to that event so you do not have to recreate your page.
